Dan Sperry

Dan Sperry is a phenomenon of modern magic, internationally renowned for his unique style blending gothic aesthetics, dark humor, and spectacular illusions. Nicknamed the "shock illusionist", he breaks away from traditional magic by delivering provocative and visually striking performances that leave a lasting impression.

He rose to fame through America's Got Talent. An original cast member of The Illusionists, he has performed with the show on Broadway and on international tours. With over 50 million video views, Dan Sperry captivates both young and adult audiences through a radically different artistic signature that fuses rock, visual theatre, and illusionism.

A gifted self-taught magician, he combines the bizarre and the spectacular in a universe somewhere between Tim Burton and David Copperfield, captivating audiences from the moment he steps on stage. Every performance is a true visual and emotional shock, blending chills, laughter, and wonder.

