Erix Logan & Sara Maya

Erix Logan and Sara Maya form an exceptional duo, blending magic and art in breathtaking performances. Erix is recognized as one of the most innovative illusionists of our time, captivating audiences with illusions that defy the imagination and transport them to a world of unparalleled wonder. The creator of numerous original illusions, Erix Logan has received the Mandrake d'Or award three times. Alongside him, Sara Maya, with a natural calling for singing, has enriched her artistic path at the School of Actors at the Piccolo Teatro di Milano and has shone on the Italian channels RAI and MEDIASET. Her encounter with magic marked a turning point, transforming her into an exceptional magical performer, modernizing this art with elegance and charm.

Their collaboration is a perfect fusion of illusion and artistic expression, creating moments where beauty, music, and magic come together to offer a spectacular experience.

In this alchemy of talents, the duo transcends the art of magic, delivering unforgettable performances that touch the heart and stimulate the imagination of the audience. Their unique ability to weave story and illusion together has set a new standard in the world of live entertainment.

