JunWoo Park

JunWoo Park is a talented magician from South Korea known for his modern and sophisticated approach to magic. With numerous competition wins, he has established himself as a leading figure in the world of magic.

His performances on «Britain's Got Talent» were highly acclaimed, showcasing his elegant magic and earning him a spot in the semi-finals. One of his standout acts, «Shape Of a Sound,» combines card magic with sound, creating a unique and captivating experience for the audience. This performance earned him the title of World Champion of Manipulation at the FISM World Championships of Magic in Québec in 2022. He also distinguished himself in South Korea by taking second place in The Magic Star, broadcast on SBS.

In recognition of his exceptional talent, JunWoo Park was awarded the prestigious Mandrake d'Or in Paris. His dynamic and enchanting performances continue to captivate audiences globally, showcasing his remarkable skills and magical artistry. JunWoo Park is truly an exceptional artist.

