Luis de Matos

Luis de Matos is an iconic figure and a living legend in the fascinating world of magic, renowned for his innovation and extraordinary talent.

A Portuguese illusionist, author, and producer, he has captivated audiences on television and on international stages throughout an exceptional career filled with unforgettable moments and prestigious awards.

Luis de Matos is one of the most awarded magicians of his generation. His distinctions include Magician of the Year from the Academy of Magical Arts in Hollywood and the David Devant Award from The Magic Circle, recognizing his contribution to international magic.

As a magician, author, and producer, he has amassed an impressive experience with hundreds of hours on television and thousands of shows internationally. His contribution to enriching the global magic scene and inspiring a new generation of illusionists is unparalleled...

