Mag Marin

Mag Marin, born in Granollers, Barcelona, in 1989, has always had a passion for the stage and theater since his childhood. His professional career in magic began in 2008, propelling him to the most prestigious stages in Europe. Winner of first prize in Stage Illusions at the Spanish National Magic Congress and of the first edition of the Spanish TV show «Pura Magia», Mag Marin is recognized as a «complete artist». In Paris, he also received the prestigious Mandrake d'Or in recognition of his career. His show, blending spectacular magic, exquisite soundtrack, humor, and audience interaction, promises a unique and unforgettable experience. Let yourself be carried away into his magical world where confetti awaits.

Mag Marin has mesmerized audiences with his exceptional talent and charismatic personality since his early days. His approach to magic, combining wonder and entertainment, has won over a wide audience through performances on the world's biggest stages.

His boundless creativity and commitment to excellence have earned him international recognition and a prominent place among the great names of contemporary magic.

