Marc Métral

Marc Métral, renowned for his exceptional talent in ventriloquism and refined humor, revolutionized the art of ventriloquism with his innovative act featuring the famous «eloquent dog.» His notable presence at the Moulin Rouge, a global entertainment icon, charmed audiences worldwide with his charisma and ingenuity on stage.

His performances as a semi-finalist on «Britain's Got Talent» propelled his fame to unprecedented heights, garnering millions of views on YouTube and elevating ventriloquism to a new level of renown. A polyglot, he has captivated diverse audiences on international television platforms, continuously pushing the boundaries of his art with creativity and innovation.

With «En cavale !», directed by Viviane Métral, he continues his theatrical adventure alongside his favorite characters.

Each show is a tribute to excellence, reflecting his passionate commitment to his art.

His art, infused with beauty and emotion, reflects a genuine soul that resonates not only through his puppets but also in the hearts of his audience.

By giving voice to those who lack it, Marc Métral offers them something more: a soul.

