Norbert Ferré

Norbert Ferré, originally from France, chose to pursue a career in prestidigitation after completing his university studies. World Champion of Manipulation and winner of the FISM Grand Prix for Stage Magic in The Hague in 2003, he is also a Mandrake d'Or recipient. His shows, presented in several languages around the world, blend magic, humor, and self-deprecation.

Passionate about the world of entertainment, Norbert Ferré also works behind the scenes as a director. Notable recent collaborations include «The Magic Circus,» performed in Korea, Taiwan, and Europe, as well as «The Magician - Le Show,» commissioned by the city of Wavre in Belgium, featuring 25 international artists on stage.

His dedication to the art of magic and his innovative approach to entertainment ensure that his legacy as a world-class magician will endure for many years. Captivating audiences worldwide with his enchanting performances that transcend linguistic and cultural barriers, Norbert Ferré continues to inspire and delight audiences globally.

His passion for magic and commitment to pushing the boundaries of entertainment make him an essential figure in the world of prestidigitation.

