Yu Hojin

Originally from Seoul, South Korea, Yu Hojin is a master magician whose passion began in childhood. Since his early stage performances, he has captivated audiences around the world at conventions, festivals, and on television shows.

Recognized for his elegance, exceptional skill, and dexterity, Yu Hojin captivates even the most demanding spectators. His performances, marked by simple and refined visuals, reflect an artistic dimension that he passionately defends. For Yu Hojin, magic goes beyond mere illusion; it is an art form that he strives to elevate to its peak.

Named Magician of the Year by the Academy of Magical Arts in Los Angeles, Yu Hojin won the World Championship of Manipulation and the FISM Grand Prix for Stage Magic in Blackpool in 2012. He has toured internationally with The Illusionists.

A finalist on America's Got Talent in 2022, he won the first edition of The Magic Star on SBS in South Korea in 2024. He also leads Hundred Fingers, a collective of ten magicians whose performances bring manipulation, choreography, and music together.
